

Join us for a Community Forum on Circles of Support and Accountability Working towards *No More Victims

Wednesday, March 7, 2012

5:00 – 7:00 pm

Ottawa Public Library (Main Branch) Auditorium

120 Metcalfe Street, Ottawa (at Laurier Ave W)

Free Admission ~ Everyone Welcome

Join us for an engaging discussion about CoSA, an initiative inspired by restorative justice principles, pioneered by Canadians, to safely and effectively reintegrate people back into community after being incarcerated for committing sexual offences.

At this community forum, you will hear about CoSA's role and purpose to achieve No More Victims, and how we accomplish remarkable results in the National Capital Region and beyond.

- Keynote speaker Andrew McWhinnie, National Advisor to the Associate Director General of Chaplaincy, Correctional Service of Canada
- Lise Côté, Parole Officer, Ottawa District Parole Office
- Detective Mitch Houle, High Risk Offender Unit, Ottawa Police Services
- Steve Sullivan, Executive Director, Ottawa Victims Services
- Susan Haines, CoSA-Ottawa Volunteer

Light refreshments will be served
