Family Festival

Thank you to all who participated in the day of the family festival either as a volunteer, participant or sponsor. You made this day memorable for young and old!

A special thank you to the Midori Market and Desjardins Catering.

Courses are back!

Yoga, cardio step, karate and dancing courses are back this fall. The fitness card is still available, offering 10 courses of your choice for $ 75.

Which courses would you like to see offered in the village?

Some have proposed bellydancing or traditional step dancing, others would be interested in music classes.
What do you think?

Announcements

New Stop Sign

The City of Ottawa has announced they will be adding a new stop sign at the intersection of Sarsfield and Colonial road. This addition is a result of residents expressing concern over high speeds in that area. The city will also paint the speed limit on the pavement to attempt to solve the issue.

Do you feel your MPAC assessments are too high?

A Sarsfield resident would like to form a group to dispute the estimated worth of the homes in our area. For more information, contact Laurent at 613-835-3136 or 613-835-2214.

Demonstration

On September 29, several dairy farmers from the village drove up to Parliament Hill to communicate their concerns about the new Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP). Visit our website for more pictures.

New Pharmacy in Navan

Medici pharmacy has opened its doors at 100-1200 Colonial Road. The pharmacy is owned by Navan residents Norm Quesnel and Danielle Lamoureux.

Annual Golf Tournament

The UCFO would like to thank all participants and volunteers who attended the event that was held September 18th at the Club de Golf La Nation. The event raised 20 000$ for the Fonds de la Relève Agricole Franco-Ontarienne.
