Sarsfield in Bloom Contest

Have you submitted your application to the village beautification contest? If not, it is not too late to do so! We have extended the registration deadline to August 1st.

Participants can register in one or more of the following categories:

- The most beautiful garden
- The most original garden
- The biggest sunflower

Application forms and submission envelopes are available at Midori . You can also register by sending us an email (info@sarsfield.org) with your name , address and choice of categories.

A big thank you to J.A. Laporte Flowers & Nursery for donating flowers for our containers.

Announcements

May 14 Village Cleaning

Thank you to all participants ! We filled 6 bags with garbage and 4 bags of recycling. Last year we had a total of 13 bags of garbage. We are pleased to see that there is less waste in the streets. Thank you for keeping our village clean!

Fort McMurray Donation

The Sarsfield Community Association has made a $200.00 donation to the Canadian Red Cross to help the victims of the fires.

Bookmobile now on Mondays at 4 pm

We are happy to announce that after discussions with the City of Ottawa , the bookmobile times have been changed to Monday from 4:00 to 5:00 pm effective July 4th.

For more information on obtaining a library card and the many services offered through the library, visit bibliooottawalibrary.ca
